

University of Delhi Programmes for Academic Session 2019-20

Greetings from the Consulate General of India, Johannesburg.

The University of Delhi is inviting online applications from South African nationals for admission in its different study programmes for the academic session 2019-20.

The University of Delhi is recognized globally for academic excellence and is reputed as a premier and top-ranking University in India. The University offers a wide range of courses at various levels i.e. Under-graduate, Master and Doctorate in different disciplines such as law, natural sciences, engineering, social science, genetics, electronic sciences, Computer Science, Commerce, Business Studies, Management, Music and Fine Arts, Journalism, Languages and many others. These courses are conducted in its 70 colleges, 16 faculties, 87 departments and 16 centers. An internationally acclaimed and affordable quality education with English as the medium of instruction makes the University a top choice for students. The student community is among the largest globally and is truly diverse, being well represented from within every corner of India and from 70 countries worldwide.

For the academic session 2019-20, the application process has commenced from 22 February 2019. A notice from Foreign Student's Registry, University of Delhi, Delhi specifying the process, contact details for further information and the last date for submission of application forms online is attached. Detailed information about admission related process and completing the online application form is available at the Foreign Students' Registry website www.fsr.du.ac.in. Candidates seeking admission are advised to visit this website and in case of any further information or clarification, may write to Foreign Students' Registry at email: fsr@du.ac.in or fsr\_du@yahoo.com.

*****